SUGGESTED VISITATION SCHEDULE
4TH CHANCERY CIRCUIT, FIRST AND SECOND DIVISION

A non-custodial parent, absent unusual circumstances found to exist by the Court, shall be entitled to liberal visitation privileges with a child, or children, of the parties as follows:

1. Alternate weekends commencing at 6:00 p.m. Friday and continuing until 6:00 p.m. Sunday except that all special, holiday and summer visitation as hereinafter set forth shall take precedence. Alternate weekend visitation missed due to conflicts with special, holiday or summer visitation will not be made up.
2. Thanksgiving - Even numbered years, commencing at 6:00 p.m. Wednesday before Thanksgiving and continuing until 6:00 p.m. Sunday.
3. Christmas - Odd numbered years commencing at 6:00 p.m. on the day school dismisses for the Christmas break and continuing until 10:00 a.m. Christmas Day. In even numbered years, commencing at 10:00 a.m. Christmas Day and continuing until 6:00 p.m. the day before school resumes.
4. Spring Break - Even numbered years commencing at 6:00 p.m. the day school dismisses for Spring Break and continuing until 6:00 p.m. the day before school resumes.
5. Memorial Day/ Labor Day - In the event the non-custodial parent's regularly scheduled visitation occurs on a weekend immediately preceding either of these holidays, such visitation shall continue until 6:00 p.m. on such holiday.
6. Father's Day - Regardless of the other scheduling contained in this order, the Father shall have visitation on Father's Day and the Mother shall have visitation on Mother's Day, each from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.
7. Summer Visitation - Two separate 14 day periods during the summer school break with at least seven (7) days intervening between said periods. The non-custodial parent shall select the dates for said visitation and give written notice thereof to the custodial parent at least sixty (60) days before such visitation commences. A copy of such written notice shall be filed with the Court Clerk.
8. All notices required herein are to be given by parents to parents and never to or by children.
9. Telephone visitation - The non-custodial parent may visit with the child(ren) by telephone (at his/her own expense if long distance charges are incurred) at reasonable times prior to 6:00 p.m.
10. The non-custodial parent shall be responsible for transportation to and from the custodial parent's primary residence, so long as the custodial parent continues to reside in Washington County, Arkansas.

11. Each parent is enjoined and restrained from removing the child(ren) from the jurisdiction of this Court, except for brief vacation trips, without permission specifically granted by order of this Court, or by written consent of both parents to be filed with the court clerk.

12. Each parent shall keep the other fully informed of his/her residence address, postal box address, telephone number, and all known pertinent information regarding the health, education and welfare of the child(ren). Neither parent shall make derogatory remarks about the other in the presence of the child(ren).

13. In the event the non-custodial parent is unable to exercise visitation at the prescribed time, he/she shall, as quickly as practicable, advise the custodial parent of the length of any delay or of cancellation.

14. Child(ren) shall not be permitted to make decisions regarding visitation. The custodial parent is charged with the duty and responsibility to insure compliance with the visitation schedule and may not independently suspend or terminate visitation for any reason, absent an emergency.

15. Violation of the Visitation Order may result in a finding of contempt of court and the violator subjected to such punishment as deemed appropriate by the Court.
